No. AN/III/3012/Cultural Festival

Dated: 16.1.2015

To

All Pr. Controllers/Controllers

Subject: All India DAD Cultural Festival - April,2015

The Defence Accounts Department has huge talent in cultural domain amongst its officers and staff. Many offices of the organization conduct cultural activities as part of the DAD Day celebrations or on other important occasions. However, most of these events take place locally and are limited to the staff available at a location. As a result, most of the staff at locations other than the headquarter offices do not get opportunity to show their talent.

2. Realizing the need to give recognition to the vast pool of talent within the department across the country, it has been decided to organize an All India DAD Cultural Festival. Such a festival will also give all of us an opportunity to celebrate our rich culture in different parts of the country that we all treasure and cherish. The festival will be held on an All India basis in New Delhi in April of each year. Dates for the first festival to be held in April will be communicated in due course. The All India DAD Cultural Festival will be preceded by Preliminary Rounds held in respective Controllers' Offices followed by a Zonal Round, which the RTCs will host on a regional basis on the same lines as the DAD quiz contest.

3. The details of the events to be conducted and the format / guidelines are given in Annexure 'A'.

4. All the Principal Controllers/ Controllers are requested to take necessary and timely action for completing the Preliminary and Zonal rounds so as to enable holding of the All India DAD Cultural Festival in New Delhi in April, 2015.
